

Aboard the deluxe ship Le Lyrial

October 16-23, 2020

Discover exquisite Spain beginning in Barcelona, a city in perpetual movement, where you will set out on the traces of Gaudí and fall under the spell of his famous architectural works, such as the Sagrada Familia cathedral. After a first call at Palma de Majorca, one of the jewels of the Balearic Archipelago, known for its four main islands that are charming, picturesque and discreet, sitting atop the clear waters of the Mediterranean like grains of sand, you will join Valencia, with its remarkable architectural splendors. In Málaga, a visit to the new Centre Pompidou and the museum dedicated to the works of Málaga-born Picasso is a must as well as a visit to the superb site of the Alhambra Palace in Grenada. Next we'll visit Cadiz, one of the country's oldest cities, built on a rock and surrounded by the sea where you can visit the superb city of Seville, before ending in your voyage in beautiful Lisbon.

Featuring Emile Pandolfi, Master Pianist

Emile Pandolfi in Concert is a combination of charm, laughter and the exquisite styling of a master pianist in a performance packed with passion, beauty and fun. Concert soloist Emile Pandolfi's unique interpretations of composers from Chopin to Rodgers & Hammerstein to Lloyd Webber put him in a world class all his own. His romantic CDs of pop show tunes and standards have sold upwards of three million copies, with hundreds of thousands of downloads & streams.

With almost 30 recordings in his own discography, Steinway Artist Emile Pandolfi ranks among America's most popular piano artists. With much of his performance repertoire being lush, intricate arrangements of Broadway and standards that form the pantheon of the "American Popular Songbook," his influences are, in fact, more classical than pop. And it is this subjective layering of classical style that Pandolfi infuses onto the broad palate of selections performed in his frequent concerts that seems to pluck that connective thread with audiences everywhere.

The deluxe, five-star Le Lyrial is one of the most beautifully conceived and technologically sophisticated small ships afloat. Designed in France and built in Italy, Le Lyrial combines an elegant, understated aesthetic with fine European craftsmanship. Guests enjoy attentive service, gourmet French-inspired cuisine, and a relaxed, congenial ambiance. The PONANT ships have received accolades from Travel + Leisure, National Geographic Traveler, AFAR and others. They are certified as "Clean Ships" and meet the highest environmental standards for energy conservation and resource management.

ITINERARY

BARCELONA, SPAIN | EMBARK

Barcelona offers its many visitors a perfect blend of tradition and modernism. Over the years, it has been marked by some of the greatest artists, such as Picasso, Miró or Gaudí, most of whose work has been listed as World Heritage Sites by UNESCO. Take the time to stroll along the Ramblas and enjoy the gentle, typically Mediterranean lifestyle of the capital of Catalonia.

Saturday, October 17

PALMA DE MALLORCA, BALEARIC ISLANDS, SPAIN

Palma de Mallorca will reveal its many treasures: idyllic coves, majestic limestone cliffs that plunge into the clear sapphire and turquoise waters of the Mediterranean, and vast plains planted with almond trees, olive trees and vineyards. When your ship calls at the capital of the Balearic Islands, take a walk to discover its emblematic monuments, such as its famous cathedral, and amble through its old streets.

Sunday, October 18

VALENCIA, SPAIN

Valencia - the city of Art and Sciences. Two hearts beat in this Spanish city: one is modern, avantgarde and almost futuristic; the other is more provincial, more traditional and nostalgic. The city has an abundance of architectural styles that coexist harmoniously, but above all it resolutely embraces the 21st Century with the futuristic structures of its Agora congress centre and City of Arts and Sciences, emerging from a crystal blue pool.

Monday, October 19

AT SEA

During your day at sea, make the most of the many services and activities on board. Treat yourself to a moment of relaxation in the spa or stay in shape in the fitness centre. Depending on the season, let yourself be tempted by the swimming pool or a spot of sunbathing.

Tuesday, October 20

MÁLAGA, SPAIN

A historical and festive town, Malaga is located in Andalusia, on the Costa del Sol. Between the marina and the beaches, the seaside promenade of La Farola offers an ideal setting for strolling and relaxing. Set slightly further back, the Malagueta bullring is one of the emblematic sites of the city. From the hill overlooking the old town, one can see Gibralfaro castle and the Alcazaba, two fortified ensembles rising out from the cypresses and maritime pines. Plus, a visit to Pablo Picasso's birthplace is a must.

Wednesday, October 21

CADIZ, SPAIN

Andalusia's Cadiz is located on the Costa de la Luz, in the south-west of Spain. From the beaches of Cortadura, to the flamenco bars of Santa Maria, through the colorful streets of la Viña, you will be amazed by this city, which is both steeped in history and extremely festive. In the medieval El Pópulo district, you will stroll along covered passages in the narrow gaps between houses. You will also be able to mosey around the lush Mina square. The star of the show is the magnificent cathedral and its dome crowned with yellow porcelain, presiding above the Ocean.

Thursday, October 22

AT SEA

Friday, October 23

LISBON, PORTUGAL | DISEMBARK

Portugal's capital city located on the banks of the Tagus, only a few kilometres from the Atlantic coast, is a city of exceptionally rich cultural diversity. At the mouth of the river harbour, impose two UNESCO World Heritage monuments, Jeronimos monastery and Belem tower. The Alfama hillside is also worth visiting: known for its fado bars and its Moorish streets, this district is the oldest one of the city and one of the most typical. Not far from there, Chiado's elegant streets are home to big fashion labels and are an invitation to a bit of luxury shopping.
